

Water Rescue for the First Responder

Meets NFPA 1670 Technician-Level Guidelines

Purpose: Emergency services personnel who arrive on the scene of a water incident must recognize the risks and dangers associated with water emergencies and take appropriate actions to insure their safety. This course will address scene assessment, activation of the Emergency Response System, and evaluation of potential and existing water hazards, rescue vs. recovery and personal safety measures.

Location: Eagle Fire Company – Mt. Wolf, York County; Contact: Ryan Brenneman (324-1253)
Ryan.Brenneman@comcast.net

Date & Time: March 17, 2010 (Wednesday) Class starts at 6:30 pm

Instructor: Todd A. Stahl WhiteCap Water Rescue Instructor
717.801.9272 (Mobile) Email: TASTahl1@comcast.net

Fee: $25.00 Per-Person; Check(s) payable to WhiteCap Water Rescue Training, LLC

Department registration due 1 week prior to the training!
Payment due the night of training!

Sign-Up

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____